

A Moon Night

Elias Taico

it was in a full moon night, with thousands of sparkling stars, every second I would get close to the light, that those eyes hidden within them, for us it was all magical, a fairy-tale, we didn't have anything, but you were my precious gem, the night unforgettable like your words, your soft body, my whole world, the way your eyes would look at me, I know I'll never forget, I wish I was fifteen again, to walk for hours in a sparkling night, just to see that girl of fourteen, that once said I was her Knight, that once gave me her entire self, but years later left me by myself, I'm in true love,
with a girl of fourteen,
the one girl I adore,
but that now is gone,
she left to never come back,
that beautiful soul runaway, i'll never forget that night, when laying on my back, she said that I was her night and day, but now she is just a memory, a picture in my heart,
the one fairy story,
the reason of my art,
the words of this poetry, I would walk for hours again, in a sparkling night, just to see that girl of fourteen that once said I was her day and night...
